

Sarah Chauquum ("Chargain") v. Edmund Robinson
 Kings County Inferior Court of Common Pleas, Vol. A, Pg. 121 (transcription follows original doc)

121

*Sarah a Molatto Woman now of South Kingstown in the County of King's County Spinster Daughter to Jane Chargain an Indian woman of said South Kingstown, Plaintiff in and Edward Robinson Action of the Case damage Said Eighty pounds currant Money of New England Edward Robinson of New London in the County of New London in the Colony of Connecticut Shopkeeper Defendant the Defendant made Default Wherefor it is as Considered by this Court that the said Sarah Recover & have
 of the said Edward the Sum of Fifty five pounds Currant Money of New England and Cost of Court Incurred att. 2. 17. 8*

*And John Champlin of Lyme in the County of New London
 By his Attorney John Lee of sd Lyme appeared in Court pursuant
 To a Citation served upon him to appear & Defend the said Edward against the Demands of the said Sarah brought as a foresaid For that the said John Champlin had sold & Warranted
 Said Sarah to Ebenezer Way of New London in sd County as a Slave
 And the said John Champlin by his said Attorney was ready to defend according to sd Citation. But no answer was filed by the Edward in Writing Six days before the sitting of the Court as the Law requires wherefore Judgment was made up against Edward for Default*

1301

Sarah a Molatto Woman now of South Kingstown in the Sarah Chargain County of King's County Spinster Daughter to Jane Chargain vs an Indian woman of said South Kingstown, plaintiff in and Edward Robinson Action of the Case damage Said Eighty pounds currant Money of New England Edward Robinson of New London in the County of New London in the Colony of Connecticut shopkeeper
 Defendant the Defendant made Default Wherefor it is as (?)

Considered by this Court that the said Sarah Recover & have
of the said Edward the Sum of Fifty five pounds currant Money of New England and Cost of Court Taxed at £2..17..8

And John Champlin of Lyme in the County of New London,
By his attorney John Lee of sd Lyme appeared in Court pursuant
To a citation Served upon him to appear & defend the said—
Edward against the demands of the said Sarah brought as a foresaid for that the said John Champlin had sold & Warranted ye
Said Sarah to Ebenezer Way of New London in sd County as a Slave
And the said John Champlin by his said attorney, was ready to defend according to sd citation. But no answer was filed by the sd Edward in wrighting six days before the setting of the Court as the Law requires whereas Judgment was made up against ye sd Edward for Default.